3RD ANNUAL "NIGHT AT THE GALLERY" SATURDAY, AUGUST 25, 5:30-8:00PM

We hope you will join us on August 25th, from 5:30-8:00 PM for our 3rd Annual Night at the Gallery for an enjoyable evening of wine, beer tasting, appetizers and live music by "Sol." We will again have live and silent auctions filled with some great donations.

This wonderful community event will be held at the beautiful Charlestown Gallery and hosted by CHS members Gilly Gilstein and Renee O'Gara.

Tickets are now on sale - $25.00 for CHS members and $30.00 for non-members. Call Pam (401-364-1952), Suzanne (401-364-3935) or email: info@charlestownhistorical.org to reserve yours. There will be limited availability at the door.

MUSEUM UPDATE

Because of summer's busy schedules, our volunteers have taken some time to regroup. You will find us hard at work shortly to finish both the exterior and interior of the museum.

Our sign will be going up soon!

Because of the strong community support of volunteers and local companies, we are still under budget on our construction costs. Our next big museum project will be setting up displays, gathering research materials of our town's history and developing a media center.

Identifying and Dating Family Photographs with Maureen Taylor November 3, 2012, Time and Location To Be Announced

Learn 10 easy steps for naming those unidentified pictures tucked away in shoeboxes.

Maureen Taylor is an internationally recognized photo identification and family history expert. She has authored books and articles and has been featured in the Wall Street Journal, Hallmark Television, The View, Better Homes & Gardens and more.
